Life on campus:

Campus Card

We will apply for a campus card with personal information on it for foreign teachers who sign a one-year contract with us; while for the short-term teacher, we will provide you with a temporary campus card.

You can connect your campus card with your ICBC bank account, in which way the system can be deposit money in your campus card from your bank account automatically when the money in your campus card is less than 20 Yuan.

You can also use the campus card in the supermarkets on campus, borrow books from library on the south campus, or go to the swimming pool on the north campus.

Dining Hall

There are several dining halls both on the north and south campus. You can use your campus card in those dining halls.

Banks

There are two banks (Bank of China and Industrial and Commercial Bank of China) around the campus and two ICBC ATMs on campus.

Supermarkets

There are two supermarkets in the north campus: Shisheng Supermarket and Hanghong Supermarket, the former of which is located on the north campus while the latter is near the northwest gate of the north campus.

Telephone

Most of CAUC foreign teachers will live at Foreign Expert Building. There are telephones in every room. If you would like to dial a mobile phone number or a telephone number outside campus, you can dial 9 first, and then dial the number you need.

Internet

We will provide a computer in your room. You can double click Dr.com on the desk to log in with your username and password, and log out after using the internet.

At the beginning of every semester, we will charge some money (RMB 90 yuan for 90 G) into your account. After using up the money, you can go to the Internet Center to charge your internet account by yourself. The Internet Center is on the 6th floor of Building No.1 on the north campus.

School Bus

There are several school buses driving teachers to the downtown every working day at 12:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. respectively. The bus stop is on the north campus near the north-west gate.

Shopping on weekend

Every weekend, we will arrange a car for the foreign teachers to go shopping in the downtown supermarkets. You can contact International Affairs Department every Thursday if you plan to go shopping in the weekend.
